To the Delaware County community, Hermes Expo exhibitors and guests,

As the local media sponsor of the 24th annual Hermes Expo, the Delaware County News Network welcomes the Hermes Expo to Delaware County at the fabulous Concordville Inn on March 31st.

The Delco News Network has been business partners and friends with founder and president, Paul Kotrotsios for over 25 years. We became involved years ago when we printed the Hellenic News. This progressed throughout the years as we shared time at the Press Club serving the Philadelphia region.

We will be publishing an Expo Supplement that will be delivered to over 75,000 businesses and homes throughout Delaware County on March 25th. All exhibitors are encouraged to be part of the supplement with a display ad and a press release about your business.

We are excited this year to have the Hermes Expo here in Delaware County. The Best Western Hotel at the Concordville Inn in Concordville will be a perfect fit for this expo. This annual event which has always been held in Atlantic City will now become a yearly fixture here in Delaware County.

So please join us in welcoming the Hermes Expo to the Concordville Inn March 31st.

Thank you,
Rich Crowe
